Editorial Review

Review

Sherwin Noland, M.D. Clinical Professor of Surgery, Yale School of Medicine; author of "How We Die, Doctors, and The Wisdom of the Body" Merck has accomplished what I had thought was impossible -- to produce a clear, readable explanation of the normal and diseased functions of the human body.... This is a remarkable contribution.... Doctors should encourage their patients to own it.

Jane E. Brody "The New York Times" The most useful [medical guide] of all... consumer friendly... clever cross-referencing... includes topics missing from many competitors.
