Flowers (Drawing Masterclass) By Margaret Eggleton

Margaret Eggleton shares her passion for drawing flowers in this inspiring and practical guide. She demonstrates drawing techniques in easy to follow stages, giving advice on looking at the flower– not the paper– while drawing, as well as shading, petal shapes, leaves, stems and more. She shows step by step how to draw a fantastic selection of popular flowers including hollyhocks, lilies, sunflowers, tulips, gladioli and clematis, in a wide variety of media. She also demonstrates drawing flowers in the landscape and in containers. Suitable for beginners wanting to build up their confidence and more seasoned artists seeking inspiration, this book is a must-have for anyone who wants to draw flowers.

Editorial Review

Review

"The book has a nice progress, moving from leaves, stems and petals through individual flower studies to flower groups and flowers in the landscape." —The Artist (May 2012)

"Demonstrations include Gladioli, hollyhocks, penstemon, lilies, sunflowers, mixed flower and garden studies. They include step-by-step instructions. Although not impossible for the beginner, I felt this was more for intermediate and experienced artists." —www.YarnsAndFabrics.co.uk

"There is . . . a useful section on using sketchbooks and photographs to gather information for later use. The rest of the book is devoted to individual flower demonstrations." —Leisure Painter (February 2013)
