The Meanest Man in Texas By Don Umphrey

The amazing and miraculous true story of Clyde Thompson. He killed two men when he was 17 years old. The year was 1928 and the place was rural west Texas. He was nearly lynched while awaiting trial. Found guilty, he was then was sent to death row.

Thompson's killing streak didn't stop there. Nor did his desire to escape from prison. Prison officials finally gave him The Meanest Man in Texas moniker, and the prison chaplain said he was a man without a soul. Locked into a solitary confinement cell made especially for him from the old prison morgue, Thompson was a man without hope. It was then that he reached out for help and his life started to change.

The author is a professor emeritus at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas.
