Advanced Educational Psychology By Ram Nath Sharma & Rajendra Kumar Sharma

During the course of teaching educational psychology to graduate and postgraduate students, the authors felt the need for a suitable textbook on this subject which may cover the syllabi of Indian Universities and maintain a balanced outlook. The books written by Western authors are set in Western environment and hardly cater to the needs of Indian students. An attempt has been made to provide a model textbook excluding all unnecessary elaborations and including whatever is required to maintain a good standard. The language of the book is simple and lucid. The book provides all valuable aspects of advanced educational psychology and will be of great use for students, teachers, educational planners and common readers.

Betty Patton:

As a pupil exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library in order to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart and soul or real their pastime. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Advanced Educational Psychology can make you experience more interested to read.
