Editorial Review

From the Author

Spiritual battles are just like natural battles. Nations don't constantly engage in warfare; they fight when a problem comes along. Afterward, their soldiers return home, experience a time of peace and refreshing, and don't fight again until there is a reason to fight.

The same is true with biblical spiritual warfare. Battles will come, but they won't come every day. God has given us spiritual weaponry so that when battles do come, we will be prepared to maintain our victorious position over Satan.

This book was written with this principle in mind. The teaching contained within these pages is not designed to make you run around looking for the devil behind every door. Rather, it is designed to help equip you so that when battles do come, you will be prepared to stand against them.
