The Fossil Girl By Catherine Brighton

It's 1811. Ten-year-old Mary Anning, her brother Joe, and their widowed mother are eking out a meager existence running a little fossil shop in the seaside town of Lyme Regis. After a storm wipes out most of the shop's merchandise, Mary and Joe begin the slow work of restocking the shelves. They search high and low for fossils, and one day Mary spots a huge eye in a cliff face high above the town. She resolves to bring the creature down "no matter what the risk." The exciting discovery and recovery of the first complete fossil of an Ichthyosaurus is told in an attractive graphic novel format, perfect for reluctant readers.

Louis Cline:

As a student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's spirit or real their passion. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Fossil Girl can make you truly feel more interested to read.
