Editorial Review

From the Author

Note: this is not a technical deep dive book covering installation and configuration, as the Oracle product documentation already provides this. It is specific to Oracle BI Applications 7.9.6.4 and earlier (Informatica). However many customers have indicated this book is still of value to Oracle BI Applications 11g customers.

About the Author

Simon Miller is a Master Principal Sales Consultant at Oracle, specializing in Oracle's prebuilt BI Applications. Over the past 15 years he has worked exclusively in the BI Technology, Architecture, and Analytics space across North America and parts of Europe. Simon was originally trained on what is now Oracle's prebuilt BI Applications in April 2002. He is responsible for working with one of Oracle's largest customers, supporting both evaluations and implementations of Oracle BI Applications. Prior to Oracle, Simon worked at Siebel and was the first Siebel Analytics Master Certified resource in Canada. He has won numerous awards, including Oracle BI Sales Consultant of the Year for North America in 2008, and a Global Leadership Award from his primary customer in 2012. Simon has a BS degree from McMaster University in Hamilton, Ontario.

William Hutchinson is a Master Principal Sales Consultant at Oracle, specializing in Oracle's BI tools and applications.
